“ I am so sorry I couldn't be at the service to kiss Terri goodbye, but I was thinking about all of you. It is so sad how the wonderful, special loved ones seem to leave us so soon. Both Terri and your Mom are looking down on your family and they will always be with you. Thankfully, you have so many special and happy memories and they will eventually help you to cope with your loss. Terri, Gail and me had very special times, but extremely stressful too (and you know why), in Standards, but Terri always seemed to be the one to calm us down. You are not alone; God is right beside you and will help you in your grief. My love to the family.

“ Dear Terri,
You were my first contact with FDA when I applied to the Agency back in 2011. I will never forget how excited I was that I had a voice mail message from the FDA, in response to my application. Then after starting at FDA, and having the opportunity to work with you, was a wonderful experience for me. You not only helped me get acclimated to my new position, you were always available to answer any questions I had, and for our mindless “chit chat” about anything. Thank you for all the assistance you always provided. May the white light of the Holy Spirit, surround and comfort you, and your family.

“ Baby sister I can't believe that your're not here anymore! My heartbeat hasn't been the same since you took your last. I miss you more than words could express. You supported me and gave me strength when my pain took mine away. I am so glad that you got your answers before you were called home. I will go on and I will stand tall! I will continue to honor you in death as I did in life! You are my best friend, my supporter, my baby sister! I love you with all my heart! To the moon and back baby sister, Rest in Paradise! Watch over our family!

“ To the family of Terri Bailum-Butler: May God grant you peace today and always. It is with a very heavy heart, that makes losing Terri so very hard to believe. Sad thoughts clutter my mind, when I think about my friend, my Bingo buddy and daughter. She coined the phrase Pat-Pat. No one can say it the way she did, especially when I was winning at bingo, or needed a encouraging word. Always joyful, always loving and devoted, Terri will always be missed. It's going to be hard to go to the places we would play bingo, without seeing her sitting across the table from me. I will always cherish her friendship. I am praying for her family, because Terri's family meant everything to her. It was evident when she talked about them, but never more obvious when she spoke about her son. She loved her baby boy. We would share baby boy stories and laugh about how our sons would make us crazy at times. Our crazy was the new "I love him more than myself". Only a true Mom knows what that means, and my friend, Terri did. Terri, your Mom is waiting for you. She is waiting to welcome her baby home. She is standing by the gates with the biggest smile imaginable. Watch over us, God has sent for one of His angels. I will miss you, my friend. Rest in Paradise, always! With my love, Patricia (Pat-Pat) Godwin

“ You were the greatest big sister I could ever ask for, we are here and standing strong together. You believed in me and always had my back, you was my boo always. rest on baby no more pain. watch over us angel as you did while you were here, no worries for your sister will stand strong even when I have my moments. your husband my big brother and nephew your son is in good hands. my coworker is still laughing at what you said at your brother in law and my wedding, you have always been the sweetest and most humble person ever. I love you sis and I will see you again, until then save me a seat up there with your brother in laws and cousin. You will forever be in our hearts and on our mind, I love you always your skinny Minnie as you called me.

“ Terri girl you will truly be missed. We have been friends for 16 years and you have always been so genuine and true. I am surely going to miss our talks and laughs about work, family, our pets, especially D-O-G, and our walks in and out the building. We shared many life experiences with one another but this was one that has come too soon. I truly believe the world was blessed to have you in it and that Heaven had gained another treasure. Your memory will live on in all of us who truly loved you. Thank you for the many years. Dominic, Tyree, Toni and Dad we share our sincere condolences and prayers.

“ My best friend, my confidant, my sister, my partner in crime, Terri, you are all of these and more. We've been friends since 1st grade. Blood doesn't make you family, loyalty does. You were the most honest & loyal person that I've ever met. Terri, you are irreplaceable and you will forever be my best friend, my sister. Our bond is so strong even death can't destroy it. I love you to the moon and back. Rest in paradise....

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. May you find comfort in the words found at Isaiah 33:24 which says: "I am sick". The people dwelling in the land will be pardoned for their error. And also Isaiah 25:8; He (God) will swallow up death forever. And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces. The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth. For Jehovah himself has spoken it.

“ My side-kick, close friend and spiritual warrior who put others before herself. I miss you Terri everyday. You leave me with tools you taught me to continue on while you continue serving God in other ways he had chosen for you. I'll miss talking to you and sharing what my kids "have done this time" and hearing you laugh before you get down to business of how to handle things. I just miss you girl! Love you everyday.
