“ Dear Mom, it's almost coming up (June 16) on a year since you left me. Not a day goes by that I don't think of you and miss you. I was unprepared and didn't expect to lose my Granny within 10 months of your passing. However, I am comforted in knowing that the both of you are at peace in God's eternal presence.

Love always, until we meet again!!

“ Today, October 16 marks 4 months since you bid this world farewell. Each and every day you are in my thoughts and life just doesn't seem to be the same without you in it. I want so desperately to reach out to you and share so many things that have happened in my life these past few months and just in the world in general. But you're not here. I think that you would be proud of some of the decisions I have made and the fact that I'm cooking more than I ever imagined because I don't have you to do it for me. You taught me so much and I'm grateful that God blessed me to have you as my Mother. I'll always love you and that you know.

Love Always,
Tess

“ Today, September 16 marks exactly 3 months since you left me. My life hasn't been the same because you're no longer in it. I miss you so much and not a day goes by that my thoughts don't drift to you. I have so many things that I want to share with you but that's no longer possible. However, the two things that death doesn't diminish are my love for you and many, many memories of you and all the happy times. I long for the day when we will not have to part but be eternally together. Until then, God has you in His hands and I have you in my heart.

Love Always,

“ Thelma, my parents and I are saddened to hear of the loss of your mom. My mom remembers the special closeness you and your mother shared. We hope it will somehow help ease the pain to know that those who crossed your path years ago are still holding you close in heart. We are sincerely praying for your strength.

Hi Tracy, I'm sorry that I'm just replying to your lovely message but this is my first time on this site this month. It does my heart good to know that you and your parents took time to pen words. I'm having a difficult time dealing with my Mother's passing. I know that she has gone to be with the Lord but I so miss her presence. I take comfort in the many lovely memories we made and that keeps her very much alive. I know that death will not have the final say as God as reassured us in His Word. I know that I will see my Mother and all my friends and family who have died in the Lord. Please tell your Mom and Dad hello for me and I love them. Thelma
