

Thelma Reed

November 21, 1934 - November 29, 2016

Thelma Beaty Reed, a long-time resident of Washington, DC, passed away on Tuesday, November 29th in her home after a lengthy illness. Born November 21, 1934 in Clover, S.C., Thelma grew up in Winston-Salem, N.C., attended Kimberley Park Elementary School and graduated from Atkins High School. She received a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Elementary Education from Winston-Salem Teachers College (presently Winston-Salem State University). Thelma taught 6th grade in the Onslow County Public School system for a number of years. She later moved to Washington, DC where she taught in the D.C. Public School System until retirement. Thelma had a very positive impact on the lives of many of her students. After retiring, she loved cruising in her "Corvette", treading around the walking path at Bolling Air Force Base, and spending time with family and friends. Thelma is survived by her son, Robert Houston (Shellina) Reed of Washington, DC; her grandson, Robert Nolan Reed and granddaughter, Akina Reed, Washington, DC; four brothers, William (Phyllis) Beaty, Jr., New Haven, CT.; John (Frankie) Beaty, Winston-Salem, NC; James (Hazel) Beaty, Atlanta, GA; Paul B. Beaty, Washington, DC; and sister, Janice (Gregory) Hamilton, Severn, MD; and many adorable nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends. Thelma was preceded in death by her loving mother, Dora P. Beaty; father, William Beaty; husband Nolan Reed, Jr.; brother, Alexander R. Beaty; and nephew, Roderick William Beaty. A Memorial Service is scheduled for Monday, December 12, 2016, 9:00 A.M., Pope Funeral Home Chapel, Forestville, MD.
