“ This broke my heart and I was taken aback. We grew up on the same street in DC. He gave me my first job. I used to help him deliver the news paper. Lol. He did one side of the street and I did the other. We used to love to go to his house. The basement was lit. Florescent paintings on the walls, blue light, strobe light, and the music would be jammin'. Sometimes we would not leave until the sun was coming up. I remember seeing some of his architectural drawings and they were brilliant. Tommy had talent in many fields. Such a loss. Rest in eternal peace my childhood friend. 18th & "M" forever.
May the family be comforted at this trying time.

“ I knew Tommy during Jr. high and high school. We were friends. He had a gentle spirit. We both enjoyed music and fashion. I remember we used to talk frequently on the phone about his current girlfriend woes and my current boyfriend woes. We laughed a lot. I remember he had over 100 dress shirts. We would sometimes go shopping. He was like a brother. My boyfriend and I would attend the clubs when he was the DJ. Over the years we lost touch and I know nothing of his life over the past 30 years, but I always wondered how he was. I am saddened to learn of his passing and my sincere condolences go out to the family.
