My dear Ty, I can't express in words, how much you made an impact on my life since I've met you years ago. You're the one person, for sure that without a doubt I knew, for a fact, was a cheerful, matter of fact, and soulful friend. I love you sweetie!

“ Words can't express how heart broken I felt when I got the news yesterday from my mother who was very tearful! You were the big sister that I never had and your house was my second home. We laughed together, we had so much fun together! If only our mothers knew what we got into while they were working. I think the last time I saw you was about two years ago at my mother's house and we just rekindled and enjoyed each other's company. We never know God's plan for our life and therefore some things we just may never understand. I don't know all of the details however what I do know is there will be no more suffering! God I pray that you wrapped your loving arms around the family as they need you during this difficult time. Poodie we love you and you will be truly missed!
