Little brother (All is Well and What's Up Lover) Timmy's favorite sayings. To my sister in law Doreen and my niece and nephew, I offer my condolences and prayers. When I got the news you had existed this earth, I cried...I didnt get to talk to you or see you. You will be missed little Brother. You were a King in your own right you just couldn't see who you really was. You might not have gotten what you couldn't had in your lifetime, but the bible says that to those that have repented, serve and love the Lord with their whole heart and mean it will walk on streets of gold, no more suffering no more pain. Family let's love and honor each other, life is too short for spreading discord let's serve Jesus and make it home. Come into the Ark of safety while its still time. Goodbye Tim.

Your Big Sister Barbara

Brother-in-law , I didn't get to see you too much but I'll always remember "ALL IS WELL"! Even with being miles apart when you called babydoll to talk to her you always asked her "how's my brother-in-law doing "? You're in the hands of a just GOD now! You'll be missed and thought of often! Babydoll and I loved you! My sincere condolences to Doreen and family! If you reading this you still have a chance to get yourselves ready to meet JESUS! Today is the day if salvation with the Creator who made everything!❤️❤️🙏

“ To my Little brother Timmy (All is Well, and Whats Up Lover) was his sayings. To his wife and children you have my condolences and prayers. Life is short family its like a vapor here today gone tomorrow. Let's love and honor each other. Tim, you will be missed I been crying every since I got the word you made your exit from this earth. I Remember the time you brought your sisters a bushel of delicious huge blue crabs, your heart was to bless us if you had it. Love you little brother, this life robbed and cheated you, but eternal life waiting to those who served the Lord with their whole heart, there will be joy, peace and no more suffering.
