“ I had the pleasure of working closely with Tonney during his time at Sodexo. We often ended meetings with conversations about our families, and especially about our children. He was a terrific father who loved his children dearly. You could see and hear the pride he felt when he spoke about them. To his children, I know he will want you to continue to pursue your dreams as he will be watching with continued pride, cheering you on, just out of sight. I hope the following poem will bring you some comfort...

Death Is Nothing At All
by Henry Scott-Holland

*Death is nothing at all.
It does not count.
I have only slipped away into the next room.
Nothing has happened.*

*Everything remains exactly as it was.
I am I, and you are you,
and the old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched,
unchanged.
Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.*

*Call me by the old familiar name.
Speak of me in the easy way which you always used.
Put no difference into your tone.
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.*

*Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.
Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it.*

Life means all that it ever meant.

*It is the same as it ever was.
There is absolute and unbroken continuity.
What is this death but a negligible accident?*

*Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?
I am but waiting for you, for an interval,
somewhere very near,
just around the corner.*

*All is well.
Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost.
One brief moment and all will be as it was before.
How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!*

God Bless!

“ *I was a colleague of Tonney's and found him to be a warm and kind man (we both recently joined the same organization).
My most sincere condolences to his family as they navigate through this immense loss.*

“ My condolences and prayers are with Tonneys wife and children. I worked with Tonney at DuPont. A few of us stayed in touch and went out to lunch 2-3 times a year. He was a warm, smart, hardworking family man and will be deeply missed.

“ I am in shock! I was just told 😞. I worked with Tony and Donnie at DuPont for years. Tonney was nice, crazy, smart, a gentleman and a good friend. I am sad to say that time got away and we all lost touch. Please know that Nina (Gray) and E'Lisha (Daughter) send our Love and have you all in Prayer! ❤️❤️❤️
