“ Dearest Troy,

You were 😊 life itself...so full of generosity and spirit. One of my favorite fun memories will always be when you let Tracie and me tag along as your “production crew,” helping with outfit changes backstage at your couture shows. It was absolute chaos back there, but somehow we managed to look like we knew what we were doing. The truth is, you believed we could handle it and that meant everything.

But my most cherished memory is from when I was a struggling mother-to-be, unable to afford maternity clothes. You designed the most fashionable winter maternity collection imaginable. That knee-length wool duster kept me so warm, and your excitement to create for us, really, for the world was contagious.

I still need to find the photo of the first couture dress you made for me: a sleek black pencil dress with huge foil flower petals on one sleeve, blooming in gold, silver, hot pink, and turquoise. And let’s not forget—you even made my wedding dress when I was the DUMB AGE of 24! What was I thinking?!! 😭😭😭.

Troy, I am forever grateful for the courage, creativity, and entrepreneurial fire you modeled right in front of us when we were just young adults. We had no idea then how brilliant and dynamic you truly were.

With your family, I will honor and celebrate your legacy for life.

With sincere love and respect,

Angela Young 💕
