

Velma Lee Brox

January 20, 1943 - September 28, 2018

Velma Lee Brox, affectionately known as “Grandma funny face”, was born on January 20, 1943, in Washington DC to the late Valmor and Tinnie Brox. After a brief illness, she departed this life at Capital Caring Hospice Facility, on September 28, 2018.

Velma attended Washington DC Public Schools. She developed a strong work ethic at a young age as a Domestic Housekeeper throughout Northwest DC. She devoted her life to her kids, grand kids and great grand kids. She loved to dress, cook and eat greens.

Velma was known for her delicious cooking. Homemade cakes, pies, and breads. If you didn't like cornbread stuffing, broccoli or lamb you would have changed your mind by the time you got up from her table. 😊 Velma was a free-spirit and looked at each new day as a blessing.
