“ I remember when I was about 24yrs old and had no one to turn to, stranded in S.E. DC and for some strange reason Aunt V called me, and asked me to come over her house the next morning to paint her apartment and she would pay me. I was just five blocks from her house and said, I'll will come over toning and that's all she had to do was pay my cab fair home. Well I got that which was a blessing and had breakfast. LOVE YOU V!!!

“ Always there. The quiet storm. Never changed, always thoughtful, loving, giving, kind, and My Aunt V, a true cancer woman, we shared many birthdays together. She walked the way strong Christian women are raised to be. I have picked up the phone for our quick talks and realized you will not answer. BUT I KNOW AND BELIEVE We will be together again. Love you forever Auntee. Forever
