“ I will definitely miss Warren's face especially his halfway smile when he tries not to smile and gives his serious face. You were a gift to us all at FBCS, my memories of you are ingrained in my heart. God has received back one of his angels.

“ Warren and I spent many years together in service to the Lord. The thing that I am reminded of is his sincere love for the Lord and his willingness to grow in his love and relationship with other as he went about doing God's work for the church. I was always thankful for his willingness to serve just because he love the Lord. He will be missed but we were blessed at FBCS for having a man like him while he was there. Thanks be to God for Warren. God bless and comfort the Family.

“ My memories of Mr. Warren include many years of seeing him faithfully attending to the needs of FBC of Suitland on Saturday mornings during Expressions of Praise dance rehearsals. He often remarked that I had a lot of patience; however, as I reflect he was ever patient with not only the dance ministries and our requests for more time and rearranged furniture in the sanctuary, requests for doors to be unlocked, etc., he was also patient with the congregation and our various requests for his talents and time. The dance ministries will be ever grateful for the lovely dance studio he surprised them with.

Mr. Warren will be greatly missed in so many ways.

God bless you Bette and family.

Much love, Beverly Betts-Prue

“ The Simmons Family would like to extend our deepest condolences to the Speight family in the loss of our beloved Mr. Warren. We are thankful for his wit, his never-ending gracious service and his spirit. We have many fond memories and are most grateful for his willingness to help train our children in service. He helped us turn a punishment for playing in the sanctuary into a monthly act of service that helped our kids grow in responsibility and maturity. May you rest in peace brother. You will be missed!!

Just want to say, I sure do miss Warren, already. Always remember him being in the church, doing different things to help maintain our meeting place.

Things will never ever be the same in his absence. He is one of a kind.

Praying for the family to stay strong in their faith in God, to bring them through these extremely trying times.
