Dude...I just hear the news today that you had passed away. First Bruce and now you. Boy...we had some good times here at EPA talking trash at lunch time. But the highlight of our friendship is when you came down to my College Homecoming at The Fort Valley State in Georgia a few years ago. I will forever cherish those pictures I took and the memories we shared. I don't need to say a whole lot more. You already know how we rolled. Man...this news hit hard. But Imma keep on keeping on my friend. Rest well my guy !!! Love you dude!!! Bernard
