“ To the family: Sincerely sorry for your loss. I knew "Dink" when we were teenagers. He was always a truly stand up guy. Saw him infrequently over the years but he was always the same great person.

“ I know you as Mr. Bill, the coolest guy to hang out with. I enjoyed listening to your stories during our dinners club outings. Its such an honor to have you as a friend and coworker, although I've only known you for twenty years it seems like a lifetime. I'll always remember you and you will forever be in my heart. Until we meet again my friend. Love always your "Short Round" friend.

“ Our Heartfelt Prayers and Condolences are with you Adrian and The Family. We started out at 789 ( Safeway on MLK Ave SE. DC) as there say those were the good old days. I remember when you retired, then you came back to work at the Clinton Store. Omg, I was so glad to see that you had gained a few pounds. I was like heyyyyy, Bill you look great, plus you always knew how to make our day. I swear you use to sound like a DJ/ on the Mic at work. But we all enjoy you Bill, so I am not gonna say goodbye. But I will say so long to the jokes and laughs that we all shared at 789. Rest In Peace our Friend
Love, James and Jacqueline Barnes (789)

“ To the ones I call my family because you are special to me. I'm extremely sorry for your loss and I pray peace to all of your spirits for the days ahead. I had the honor of meeting Bill many years ago in which I'll never forget. Needless to say he was a special and caring man. I'll never forget that and then many years later I met his baby girl who is now my best friend and sister and I love all of this extended family. Stay strong and the Lord will see you all through. R.I.P Bill 🙏❤️

“ Pops it's your so in law, Dion. I'm not big on words, but I will miss you. We had some good laughs over the past 6 years. I will always cherish You welcoming me to the family and your love. I can still hear you say to me, "If I had to pick a husband for my daughter, I would have picked you" That will forever touch my heart. Rest easy young man. Until we meet again ❤️🙏, love Dion!

“ Hi Dad, this is Baby Girl, I am sitting here thinking about all the good times we have had as a Family. You were my Dad, never ever Step, you loved me unconditionally. I was able to save your last voicemail saying, Hey baby girl, it's me Dad just checking in. When in actuality you were the one battling with the toils of life, sickness, pain, you fought with all you had. I will miss you and I know you are happier now in heaven with all the ones you lost and loved. You were the Best Bonus Dad ever! ❤️ ... sleep well dad, I will see you again. Love Baby Girl and Keith.

“ Dad,

This is your oldest girl, Stephanie and I'm still in numb mode that you are not here. I will forever cherish all the memories we shared, there are so many. You married my mom when I was 27 and I'm now 56 but it always felt like you were always there from childhood. We never used the word step...because you never made us feel less than biological and I/we always loved you for that. I am missing you, hearing your voice, Popping up on you to Just to see what you were doing and to see how I could make life a little easier for you. I smile because you knew how much I loved you and would do anything for you. I'm happy you are free of all the pain, doctors visits, hospitals, dialysis and sadness because you could not live the way you wanted too. Rest now dad and I will see you again❤️ I love and miss you 😭

“ Hey Grandpa,
Can't believe you're gone. Our birthday wasn't the same this year, I would do anything just to pick you up again and go to our favorite spot to eat, laugh & talk. I'll forever cherish all the quality time we had, lunch dates & me coming over so you can cook breakfast or me just watch you nap. So thankful for the day you gave me away at my wedding, our dance together & time spent with your great grandson. May had definitely changed for me but I know you're at peace. I love you❤️
