

Mr. Wilton Fryar

December 23, 1935 - February 25, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Wilton Fryar who departed this life peacefully on February 25, 2025, at the age of 89. Born on December 23, 1935, in Spartanburg, South Carolina, Wilton was a devoted husband, a caring father, and a steadfast professional whose contributions to the federal government spanned several decades.

As we celebrate Wilton's remarkable life, we invite family and friends to join us in honoring his memory. A wake will take place at Galilee Baptist Church on March 7, 2025, beginning at 10:00 a.m., followed by a funeral service at 11:00 a.m. The service will provide a space for everyone to share their love and memories of Wilton, reflecting the joy and compassion that he brought into the lives of those around him.

Following the funeral, Wilton will be laid to rest at a burial service at Quantico National Cemetery located at 18424 Joplin Road in Triangle, Virginia. His family invites you to join them in expressing their love and grief during this time of mourning.

Wilton Fryar will be deeply missed, but his spirit will continue to inspire all who knew him. May we all carry forward his legacy of love and dedication in our hearts.
