“ Just heard this news, my thoughts and prayers to the Dixon family. I met Yvonne at Earlham when she was a senior and I was a wide eyed freshman. Who could not fall in love with those dimples, freckles and smile. Of course, we all were afraid of her because we thought her Mom was a spy when she told us her Mom worked for the CIA, at least that is what I remember. Had not seen her in many years but had to cry when I read the news. Just a good person and sorry she is goon too soon.

“ Thinking of the Dixon family with deepest sympathy and hoping it provides you with comfort to know that others share in your sorrow. Yvonne will be greatly missed by many. May the wonderful memories of Yvonne and the prayers of others sustain you through this difficult time. Beverly Druitt
